Tesla's $25,000 car doesn't worry biggest rivals in China

BLOOMBERG
September 28

TESLA INC'S PLAN to build a $25,000 car within the next three years doesn't seem to have fazed China's most-promising electric vehicle startups, with executives at the Beijing Auto Show saying Elon Musk can bring it on.

"It's a good thing for us," WM Motor Co founder and Chief Executive Officer Freeman Shen said. "We are very happy Tesla came to China because Tesla is just like Apple in the early days, they educate the whole market."

Just as Apple Inc's share in the mobile-phone market has been eroded by local players like Xiaomi Corp, Oppo and Huawei Technologies Co, so too will Tesla's, however over a longer time horizon, Shen said. Tesla's slice of the "main-stream" electric-vehicle market will significantly decrease in five to 10 years, he said.

Where WM Motor will be by 2030 isn't certain either. The company earlier this month raised $1.5 billion in a Series D round led by Shanghai Automotive Industry Corp. (Group), the parent of China's biggest automaker SAIC Motor Corp. People familiar with the matter have said WM plans a stock-market listing in its hometown of Shanghai as soon as this year, something Shen indicated on Saturday sounded ambitious.

Xpeng Inc Vice Chairman Brian Gu meanwhile described Tesla as a partner, with both EV manufacturers trying to attract consumers with smart, environmentally friendly cars.

As Covid-19 closes schools world's children go to work

September 28

EVERY MORNING IN front of the Devaraj Urs public housing apartment blocks on the outskirts of the city of Tumakuru, a swarm of children pours into the street.

They are not going to school. Instead of backpacks or books, each child carries a filthy plastic sack.

These children, from 6 to 14 years old, have been sent by their parents to rummage through garbage dumps littered with broken glass and concrete shards in search of recyclable plastic. They earn a few cents per hour and most wear no gloves or masks. Many cannot afford shoes and make their rounds barefoot, with bleeding feet.

"I hate it," said Rahul, an 11-year-old boy praised by his teachers as bright. But in March, India closed its schools because of the coronavirus pandemic, and Rahul had to go to work.

In many parts of the developing world, school closures put children on the streets. Families are desperate for money. Children are an easy source of cheap labour. While the United States and other developed countries debate the effectiveness of online schooling, hundreds of mil-
